

ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF WANGARATTA
PAROCHIAL DISTRICT OF WANGARATTA WEST & THE WARBYS

29th September 2024
St Michael's Day

Dear Parishioners,

A reminder that next Sunday our clocks SPRING FORWARD an hour.

How wonderful to be celebrating St Michael and All Angels across the parishes this Sunday. Sunday marks the 23rd Anniversary of the Consecration of St Michael's Church.

This week in our Calendar we commemorate two men of interest for us, on Monday Jerome, Translator of the Scriptures, priest (d 420), and on Friday Francis of Assisi, Friar, Deacon, preacher (d 1226).

Jerome's importance rests in his work in translating the Hebrew Scriptures into Latin. Prior to his work the version of the Hebrew scriptures used in the church was a translation called the Septuagint—The Translation of the Seventy—often written as LXX (70) because it was said to have been translated into Greek in the 3rd century BC by 72 translators. Jerome moved to Jerusalem in order to better his understanding of the Hebrew language and his translation of the Hebrew Bible into Latin gave to the Church a more sound version of those scriptures. His translation came to be known as the Vulgate and was the version used in all churches in western Europe until the 16th Century. The first complete edition of a bible in English was made in 1526 and while it partially used Jerome's Vulgate translation it also employed direct translations from Greek and Hebrew into English.

Francis of Assisi is these days synonymous with Blessing of Animals/Pets, which at the Cathedral we will offer a week after Francis's Day in conjunction with the Market on October 12th, and the environment.

Francis was born in Assisi and was baptized Giovanni but given the name Francesco by his father, a cloth merchant who traded in France and had married a French wife. Francis had a rebellious youth and a difficult relationship with his father. Undergoing a change of attitude he took to caring for disused churches and for the poor, particularly those suffering from leprosy. Others joined him and he prepared a simple, gospel-based Rule for them all to live by. As the Order grew, it witnessed to Christ through preaching the gospel of repentance and emphasizing the poverty of Christ as an example for his followers. At his death, on the evening of 3rd October 1226, his Order had spread throughout western Christendom.

And may light perpetual shine upon them.

Prayer of the week (pray daily) {OS 26}

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity;
mercifully grant us such a measure of your grace that,
running in the way of your commandments,
we may obtain your gracious promises,
and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
